

The Scottish Rite Center was dedicated to the service of the community in November 1925. Construction was started in April 1924. It took over six weeks to excavate the ballroom, 350,000 bricks and hundreds of barrels of cement, gravel and water, and approximately 200 employees to complete the magnificent community center.

The Scottish Rite Center has hosted many great entertainers from vaudeville to the Ziegfield Follies, from the newest country stars to Glen Campbell. Many area high schools transform the Valencia Ballroom into magical places each spring for area proms, as well as hosting wedding receptions. The Scottish Rite Center truly is a community center!
